Pentecost Sunday, 10:00am

Sermon: "I Will Pour Out My Spirit On All Flesh "

Scripture: Acts 2:1-12

Ways to join worship: In-person with reservation, Facebook Live at 10:00am on Sunday, by recording (to be posted on our website on Monday), via CFU Public Access channel 95.5 or 18 on Saturday nights at 7:00 p.m. and Sundays at 12:00 noon (CFU services lag by a week).

Sunday Fellowship Hour via Zoom is being suspended for the remainder of May.

Pastor's Ponderings - New Ways of Being

"When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place." Acts 2:1

Since Jesus ascended to heaven, the disciples have been waiting in a locked room for many days, waiting. Wondering. Praying. Little did they know that Jesus' promised paraclete would arrive in such a powerful way and they would never be the same. As we approach Pentecost this year, I can feel some echoes of the disciples' experience. This past year seems to have been a year of waiting and wondering and praying. And now we are nearing the moment when we will all be gathered in one place. Many of us will be in-person and others will be joining by Facebook live. This Pentecost we eagerly look forward to welcoming the Holy Spirit as our paraclete (advocate, comforter, assistant, guide, helper, intercessor, and companion) and being open to how she will lead us into new ways of being together and engaging our community. Like the disciples did in Acts 1, we will be commissioning new leadership and praying for openness, wisdom, and guidance in the way forward.

Prayer of Preparation

Divine Disrupter, in the heart of the ordinary, you stir and surprise. We welcome your disruption as we release instincts to control all around us. Though evil makes rigid, oppresses with order, exploits through unjust rules and regulations, your love is a force of agitation, drawing the faithful together, rowdy with hope. May it be so among us. Amen.

I cannot fully express what a joy it is to announce that we are opening in-person worship to 100 people this Sunday!

Reservations are still required and adherence to protocol is still expected. Please review the attached guidelines if you are considering joining us in-person on Sunday. For the first time I will be leading a service in our sanctuary full of wonderful people I have needed to serve and love from afar. If you are joining by Facebook live, put a message in the chat so we know you are there. Recordings of worship will still be available, so there is no need to miss out. I look forward to joyfully embracing what is next for First Presbyterian Church of Cedar Falls.

Yours in the Spirit,

Pastor Julie

Pentecost Offering

Pentecost Sunday is THIS SUNDAY, May 23.

Each year we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit and the birth of the church. The Holy Spirit remains with us still, connecting us with the church of the past, continuing to inspire the church of today, and pointing us to the church of tomorrow. Presbyterians mark this celebration by receiving the Pentecost Offering, which nurtures the faith of those who are the church now and to come – children, youth and young adults. 40% of the Pentecost offering from our church goes toward our Soles for Souls shoe gift project for children and youth. The Pentecost Offering helps young people begin life with a strong start – a solid foundation of faith formed from childhood through young adulthood.
