The Beatitudes – Blessed Are the Peacemakers

"Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of God."

– Matthew 5:9

"If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill,' and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that?"

— James 2:15-16

This Sunday we will sit with Jesus atop the mountain reflecting on what it means in Matthew when he says, "Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of God."

What does it mean to be a peacemaker? Indeed, what even is the meaning of peace? The Hebrew word we translate as peace is shalom, and like many words translated and redefined over millennia its full depth of meaning has been lost on our current culture.

Shalom means wholeness and wellness. It means all your needs—physical, emotional, spiritual, etc.— are met and lovingly cared for. So, when we share "the peace of Christ" with one another it is much more than well-wishes or another way to say hello. When we say, "The peace of Christ be with you", we are sharing a blessing of wholeness and wellness. Even more, we are committing to be participators in God's topsy-turvy kingdom; working toward a world which celebrates and works toward the good of all of God's people.

Do you know someone who characterizes the call to be peacemakers? If we sit and listen to them, what might we be called to do? What parts of our systems would we be called to challenge? I look forward to exploring these questions with you.

Your fellow mountain climber,

Pastor Julie
