Prayer Poem of Preparation "Speak A Word"

Life-Giving God,

May I speak a word of hope
into someone's spirit today;
extolling the promise and potential offered in each new rising sun.

May I speak a word of joy
into someone's spirit today;
illuminating their worth, beauty,
and blessing just as they are.

May I speak a word of victory
into someone's spirit today;
reminding them that they carry within themselves a power greater than evil.

May I speak a word of love
into someone's spirit today;
freely offering the agape of God
without condition.

May I speak a word of peace
into someone's spirit today;
offering the quiet strength of restraint over retort.

As I prepare to offer these gifts
of the Spirit, may I recall that I cannot offer what I do not have.

Therefore, may

Hope,
Joy,
Victory,
Love, and Peace

reside within me as well. Amen.

Note about memorial giving:

Just a reminder that we request memorial donations by check be written out separately from other giving or use cash. Memorials have their own separate checking account. We receive very little cash anymore in the offering plate (this was a trend before Covid), and therefore we may be unable to split the total deposit into the two different accounts. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

2022 Lenten Devotional – Lent of Liberation

As a Matthew 25 Church, we have committed to the work of dismantling structural racism. The key first step in this work is to listen openly to the stories of those who regularly encounter discrimination, bias, prejudice, and oppression.

To that end, our 2022 Lenten Devotional is “Lent of Liberation: Confronting the Legacy of American Slavery”.

This Lenten devotional invites us to learn more about the brutal institution of slavery and its impact on Black people in America and recognize how its evolution and legacy continue to harm the United States today. Each of the forty devotions includes the testimony of a person who escaped slavery through the Underground Railroad, a Scripture passage, and a reflection connecting biblical and historical themes of liberation. Reflecting on Lenten themes of exodus, redemption, discipline, and repentance, readers, both Black and white, will be empowered for the work of racial justice. Find more information and links to booksellers here.

Online Lenten Devotional

Presbyterians Today has an online devotional available: "Lord, When Did We See You?--A Matthew 25 Lenten Experience."

Matthew 25 Initiative – Committing to the Call

Last Sunday we committed to the Matthew 25 Initiative. By accepting the Matthew 25 invitation, we are joining many other congregations helping to strengthen the work and witness to Jesus Christ in our communities. We are becoming more unified with other PC(USA) congregations as we become a more relevant presence in the world. The Matthew 25 vision also demonstrates our understanding as Presbyterian Christians that we are “saved to serve.” By committing to become a Matthew 25 church, we are responding to Christ’s urgent call to be a church of action, where God’s love, justice, and mercy shine forth and are contagious.

Join a Lenten Reflection Group!

We know that our spiritual formation cannot occur in isolation. It takes a community to support, teach, listen, and pray together. This Lent we will have 3 Lenten Reflection groups to choose from. All groups will base their reflections on our chosen Lenten devotional, “Lent of Liberation”. Please check out the meeting times below to see which one fits your schedule.

10:00 am Wednesdays via Zoom – this is our Working for Justice: Breaking Bias group. All are welcome to join regardless of whether you have attended WfJ:BB in the past. These sessions will last about 60 minutes.

6:30 pm Wednesdays at First Pres. – this group will gather at the church. These session will last between 30 and 40 minutes with some music, discussion, and prayer.

These Days Devotionals

The spring quarter of These Days are available in the narthex.
