Baptism of Jesus

Next Sunday—Remembering the baptism of Jesus and our own baptisms

Scripture: Isaiah 42:1-9; Matthew 3:13-17

Worshipping from Home? We will be remembering our baptisms and celebrating the Lord’s supper together this Sunday. You are invited to prepare your worship space with a dish of water for the remembrance and a representation of bread and wine for communion.

Prayer of Preparation

“Holy God,
 when Jesus was baptized in the Jordan
 the heavens opened,
 the Spirit descended, and your voice affirmed your love in Jesus for the healing of the human race and all creation.
 By water and word you lovingly invite us into this same life-giving mission.
 May your Spirit, moving like a stream of water flowing from its source, work in us this day to realize your vision of a world made new in Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.”

Pastor’s Ponderings – Water Words

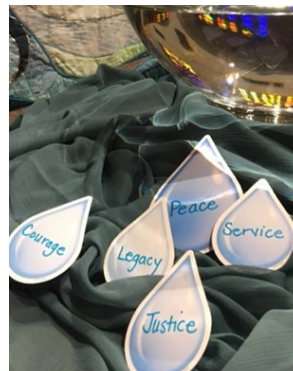

This Sunday we will contemplate the significance of the baptism of Jesus by John in the Jordan River. It was a baptism of water and the Holy Spirit where a voice from heaven claimed Jesus as a beloved child. It is also a time when we remember that we are also named as God’s own.

We will again be distributing “water words” for this year. You will be given a waterdrop shaped piece of paper with a word written on it and invited to hang it up where you are sure to see it every day. It could be on your bathroom mirror, next to your computer screen, on your fridge, or even in your car.

In the coming year, we will ponder surprising ways it pops up in our daily lives and how God might be speaking through it. Where does the word occur in scripture? How does a dictionary define it? How can the word influence the way we live our individual and collective lives?

I look forward to sharing our insights with each other as we listen for God’s guidance in 2023. Whatever God is calling us to through our word this year, we know that the grace we have received in our baptism is sufficient for that call!

Your companion in the journey,
Pastor Julie

Women of Faith of the Cedar Valley: A Conversation on Faith, Values, and Abortion Tuesday, January 17 at 6:30 p.m. via Zoom

In June 2022, the U.S. Supreme Court reversed the 1973 Roe v. Wade ruling which had asserted that unduly restrictive state regulation of abortion is unconstitutional. This new Supreme Court decision leaves it up to individual states to decide whether abortion should be legal.

Views of abortion vary among and within different faith and humanistic communities. At our Tuesday, January 17 meeting, we will share our thoughts about the Supreme Court's recent decision and how our views have been shaped by our faith traditions and/or personal values. Our discussion will be moderated by retired psychologist Dr. Naomi McCormick.

While we may differ in our views of abortion, we are certain to learn from one another in respectful discussion. To attend, contact St. Luke's Episcopal Church. Women of Faith of the Cedar Valley is an interfaith group whose goals are to encourage conversation, understanding, friendship, and the promotion of peace, justice, and prosperity, especially for women and girls, visit our website.
