YOU ARE INVITED TO COME!

Who: You and your spouse, significant other or best friend. All members of the church.

What: Church Leader Retreat led by Rev. Ian McMullen, Pastor to the Presbytery

When: Sunday afternoon, April 7th noon to 4 p.m.

Where: Church Dining Room – lunch will be served at 11:30 AM (after worship.) The meal will be catered so everything is provided.

We've invited the Rev. Ian McMullen to lead us in imagining what is next for our church. The retreat is not just for church officers, it's for all members who want to participate.

Webster's dictionary defines change as a verb meaning:

"to make different",

"to give a different course or direction",

"to put on fresh clothes", or

"to undergo transformation or transition"

We all know that our church, First Presbyterian in Cedar Falls, has changed. We will look at how we have changed and identify what that means moving forward. Have we put on "fresh clothes"?

Who were we when you joined this church? Who are we now? Are we "transforming"? Rev. McMullen will be helping us look at these questions and discover how we move forward with intention toward building a new vital church.

We need to know how many people plan to attend. You can contact Lynette in the church office: office@firstprescf.org or (319-277-3930) or sign up in the narthex on Sunday so we know how many will be attending for the meal.
